DECLARATION OF LORI JONES

I, Lori Jones, declare as follows:

1. I am over the age of 18 years and have personal knowledge of the facts to which I attest below.
2. I am currently employed as Senior Compliance Analyst for Defendant Chex Systems, Inc. (“Chex”).
3. I have personal knowledge of the matters described herein based on my personal experiences as an employee of Chex and on my review of records maintained by Chex in the ordinary course of its business as a specialized consumer reporting agency. I have reviewed Chex’s records concerning the credit files of Plaintiff Rodney Foster (“Plaintiff”). I have reviewed Plaintiff’s complaint and am generally familiar with the allegations made therein.
4. I have also reviewed Plaintiff’s Initial Rule 26(a)(1) Disclosures, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as “Exhibit B-1.”
5. I am authorized to provide this Declaration in support of Chex’s Motion for Summary Judgment.

Chex And Its Dispute Procedure

6. Chex does not report consumer credit history, but instead reports on consumer banking history. Chex's clients regularly contribute information on closed checking and savings accounts, which Chex provides to financial institutions and other companies that have a permissible purpose under the Fair Credit Reporting Act (the "FCRA").

7. Chex maintains procedures designed to assure that it conducts reasonable reinvestigations of information that consumers dispute as inaccurate.

8. A consumer may contact Chex to request a consumer disclosure report or to dispute information reported on his or her consumer disclosure report by telephone, mail, or through an internet portal on Chex's website. Upon receipt of a dispute, and after locating the consumer's consumer disclosure report, Chex initiates the process of a reinvestigation.

9. Absent an obvious defect that can be corrected on its face, Chex then notifies the source of the account information (referred to as "furnisher") of the consumer dispute, identifies the nature of the consumer's dispute, and includes the consumer's account information as it then appears in Chex's consumer disclosure report.

10. If the consumer provided Chex with documentation that supports his or her dispute, Chex will provide that documentation to the furnisher.

11. When the furnisher receives the dispute from Chex, the furnisher is expected to conduct its own investigation and to report the results back to Chex.

12. If the furnisher advises Chex to delete or otherwise update the account information, Chex takes the necessary action and notifies the consumer.

13. Upon completion of the reinvestigation, Chex sends the consumer the results of the reinvestigation along with a summary of the consumer's rights under the FCRA and additional steps the consumer may take.

14. The individuals that handle consumer disputes must undergo a training process whereby they are trained on the reinvestigation policies and procedures created by Chex.

Plaintiff's Dispute to Chex

15. On April 6, 2018, Chex received a letter from Plaintiff regarding, as the letter states, an entry in "his Chex Systems record."

16. In the April 6, 2018 letter, Plaintiff states that to his knowledge, he had never had non-sufficient funds and was not aware of any negative entries.

17. On April 7, 2018, in response to Plaintiff's April 6, 2018 letter, Chex sent Plaintiff a letter advising him of Chex's receipt of his request and that it would initiate a reinvestigation.

18. On April 12, 2018, Chex contacted First Bank to initiate the reinvestigation and submitted Plaintiff's dispute.

19. In Chex's April 12, 2018 correspondence to First Bank, it inquired as to whether the non-sufficient funds was accurately submitted to Chex, and whether the information was still accurate and should remain in Chex's system.

20. First Bank responded to Chex, advising that the reporting reason of non-sufficient funds was accurately submitted to Chex, and that the information as to Plaintiff was accurate and should remain in Chex system.

21. On April 17, 2018, Chex sent Plaintiff a letter informing him that the reinvestigation was verified, that the information submitted by First Bank was confirmed as accurate as reported, and informing Plaintiff how to obtain additional information, among other things.

22. The dispute that Chex received on April 6, 2018, was the only written dispute that Chex received from Plaintiff.

No Evidence of Inaccuracy or Damages

23. Plaintiff has not provided any evidence to Chex to demonstrate that Chex's reporting of Plaintiff's account was in fact inaccurate.

24. Chex believes that its reporting of Plaintiff's account was accurate based upon information from First Bank.

25. Plaintiff has not provided any information to Chex demonstrating actual damages he has suffered.

26. Plaintiff has not provided any information to Chex demonstrating of emotional distress damages he has suffered.

I DECLARE UNDER THE PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE AND BELIEF.

SIGNED IN Bivins, Texas, THIS 7th DAY OF March, 2019.
